

How eas'ly wert thou chained Thomas Campion

Cantus

Tenor

Bassus

Lute

How eas'ly wert thou chain- ed, Fond A god- dess so much chain- grac- ed, That heart by fa- vours is feign- ed? Why liv'd thy hopes in pa- ra- dise is plac- ed In her most heav'n- ly grace, Straight to die, straight to die dis-breast, Once by love, once by love em-

5

10

dain-brac- ed? But since th'art now be- guil- ed, By brac- ed; But love that so kind prov- ed Is 15

love that false- ly smil- ed, In some less hap- py now from her re- mov- ed, Nor will he long- er 20

place Mourn a- lone, mourn a- lone ex-rest Where no faith, where no faith is il- ed. My love still here inlov- ed. If pow'rs ce- les- tial

Figured bass notation for the first system:
 Treble: a a a a a a a a Bass: a a a a a a a a

25

creas- eth, And with my love my grief, While wound us, And will not yield re- lief, Woe

Figured bass notation for the second system:
 Treble: a a a a a a a a Bass: a a a a a a a a

her sweet boun- ty ceas- eth, That gave my woes re-then must needs con- found us, For none can cure our

Figured bass notation for the third system:
 Treble: a a a a a a a a Bass: a a a a a a a a lief. Yet 'tis no wo-man leave me, For grief. No won-der if I lan-guish Through such may prove un-just, A god-dess thus debur- den of my smart, It is no com-mon ceives me, Whose faith who could mis- trust.

 an- guish From pa- ra- dise to part.