

His golden locks

John Dowland

His gold- en locks Time hath to sil- ver His hel- met now shall make a hive for
And when he sad- dest sits in home- ly

5 turn'd. O Time too swift, O swift-bees, And lov- er's son- nets turn cell, He'll teach his swains this car-

10

ness nev- er ceas- ing! His youth 'gainst to ho- ly psalms: - A man- at-ol for a song, - Blest be the 15

Time and Age hath ev- er spurn'd, arms must now serve on his knees, hearts that wish my Sov'- reign well, 20

But spurn'd in vain; youth wan-eth by in-
And feed on the prayers - which are A- ge's Curst be the soul that thinks her an- y creas- ing. Beau- ty, strength, youth are alms: - But though from Court to wrong. - God- dess, al- low this flow'rs but fad- ing seen: Du- ty, faith, cot- tage he de- part, His - Saint is a- ged man the right, To - be your love sure are roots and ev- er green. bedes- of his un- spot- ed heart. was your knight.

First sung by Robert Hales in 1590 at the tilt in honor of Sir Henry Lee, retiring champion of the queen.