

60. Lamentabatur Jacob

Motet à 5

Miguel de Fuenllana

5 10 15

E lute

20 25 30

35 Lamenta- batur Ja- 40 cob

45 ij. 50

55 cob de du- o- bus fi- li- is
de duobus filiis

60

su- is, de du- o- bus fi- li- is suis, ij.

su- is "Heu me!

80

85

"Heu me! Dolens

Do- lens sum,

90

sum,

95

100

Heu me! Do- lens sum. de Jo- sep

.ij

105

110

de Josep

per- di- to, de Jo- sep per- di- to et

perdito,

115

ij.

120

et

tris- tis ni- mis de Ben- ja- min,

tristis

nimis

de Benjamin

1) Split course, as in Capirola

ducto pro a-

ducto pro alimoni-

li- mo- ni- is,

pro a- li- mo- ni- is, pro a-

li- mo- ni- is praecor coelestem

praecor 180 coele-

stem regem ut in dolentem, ut in do-

stem regem

ut in dolentem,

ij.

1) Split course

185

190

len-tem, ut in do- len- tem fa- ci- at e- os cer- ne-

ij.

195

faciat

200

eos cerne-

re,

205

re,

210

fa- ci- at e- os cer- ne fa- ci- as e-

215

ij.

220

ij.

225

os cer- ne- re,

230

235

fa- ci- as e- os cer- ne- re."

facias eos cer- ne-

re."

Jacob was lamenting for his two sons, saying:
"Woe is me, I am distraught over the loss of Joseph,
and deeply sad for Benjamin, taken as surety.
I beseech the heavenly king
that he might make it possible
for miserable me to see them."