

15. I sigh as sure

Francis Pilkington

5

Canto

Lute

10

Lute

15

20

Lute

1) In orig, "it may not be, but in the other parts, it's "will", so I go with the majority.

25

loves in vain; I sigh as one that lives in fro- zen, burns I hate the heart which, cho- sen,
 come from me I sigh at laughs in her so fro- ward heart, that like to knit, this glad to id- le love, which end- less will, and fruit- less

30

pain, ve- ry sor- ry, ve- ry sor- ry, ve- ry sor- ry,
 turns to and from me, to and from me, to and from me,
 free, who doth glo- ry, who doth glo- ry, who doth glo- ry
 part, makes so pret- ty, makes so pret- ty, makes so pret- ty prove, if the plea- sure, if the plea- sure, if the plea- sure

35

40

ve- ry wea- ry of my mi- se- ry. ry.
 ma- king of me no- thing but a game. game.
 in the sto- ry of my sor- ry love. love.
 and so wit- ty not to pi- ty me. me.
 for the mea- sure of my trea- sure go. go.